The Woodridge Village Board and staff welcome Gina Grady as the new Chief of Police. Chief Grady was sworn in at a Village of Woodridge Board meeting held on Thursday, September 26, 2013. Chief Grady has spent her entire career in law enforcement with the Village of Woodridge. She was appointed a patrol officer in June 1986, and was later appointed a Sergeant in February 1998. In June of 2005, she was promoted to Deputy Chief.

Chief Grady brings a wealth of police experience, a proactive and community focused approach to her new role as Chief of Police. She is tremendously respected within the department and by all Village employees.

“We are very fortunate to have someone of Gina’s talent as our new Chief of Police,” said Mayor Cunningham, “we look forward to her leadership of the department and the continued success of the Woodridge Police Department.”

A crowd of fellow officers, Village employees, family members and others attended the swearing in held in the Werch Board Room in the Woodridge Village Hall.
