Woodridge, IL – At the January 9th Village Board meeting, Tom Stefanson was sworn in as the Deputy Chief of the Woodridge Police Department. Tom joined the Department in 1998, and since that time, he has held many positions within the Department. He served as a detective from 2000 until 2004 when he was promoted to patrol sergeant. Tom served in that capacity for six years until he became Detective Sergeant in 2010. During his career, Tom has conducted numerous homicide investigations, and has received numerous commendations and letters of recognition. As Deputy Chief, he will oversee the patrol division and vehicle fleet. Tom is truly an asset to the Woodridge Police Department and to the Village of Woodridge, and the Department wishes him continued success in his role as Deputy Chief.
